

Episode 121: Guest bio

Episode name: Balancing the Scales: Best Practices When Dealing With Self-Represented Litigants

Guest(s): Chauntelle Ingenito

CHAUNTELLE INGENITO Barrister, Chalfont Chambers

Chauntelle Ingenito was called to the Bar in 2021, having been a solicitor since 2016. Prior to coming to the Bar, she practiced largely in the areas of family law, criminal law and dispute resolution.

Since coming to the Bar, Chauntelle has predominantly worked in family law in complex parenting and property matters on behalf of parents, grandparents, other family members and Independent Children's Lawyers.

She also appears in care and protection, domestic violence, criminal matters, commercial and estate litigation and has a keen interest in family provision cases.

Chauntelle appears both at 1st instance and on appeal and is on the Legal Aid NSW summary and indictable criminal law panels.

Chauntelle routinely delivers continuing legal education and community family law education through podcasts and webinars. She is a founding director of Divorce for Good, a not-for-profit organisation aimed at utilising donated profits from divorce applications towards relieving suffering in sick children.

Chauntelle was recently recognised in Lawyers Weekly's "30 under 30 2022" as the winner of the barrister category in Australia and also as a finalist for Barrister of the Year in Lawyers Weekly's "Women in Law Awards 2022".

DAVID TURNER

Host

David Turner has a gift for teasing out people's stories, so it's no wonder he is Hearsay's host. With a double Bachelor of Arts and Laws from Macquarie University, he is also an MBA candidate at UNSW's Australian Graduate School of Management.

When he isn't interviewing people on Hearsay, David is a lawyer at Assured Legal Solutions, a boutique financial services law firm located in Sydney's CBD. Prior to joining Assured, he was called to the NSW Bar, and is a former President of NSW Young Lawyers and a former Councillor of the Law Society of NSW.

David spends the little downtime that he has left reading historical fiction and tinkering on home improvement projects.

You can access David's bio on the Assured Legal Solutions website here.
