

Episode 123: Guest bios

Episode name: Brick by Brick: Unpacking Pafburn and its Effect on Proportionate Liability in NSW

Guest(s): Keith Redenbach

KEITH REDENBACH

Principal Solicitor, Redenbach Legal

In a career in law of over 30 years, Keith Redenbach is a leading Australian lawyer. Keith has been a senior partner of several leading and international Infrastructure, Projects & Government law firms. Keith has advised Australian and International principals, contractors, and consultants across a range of projects including resources, mining, infrastructure, services and transport. Most of Keith's career has been dedicated to major infrastructure projects, which invariably involves both commercial law and litigation. Keith has significant experience advising the Commonwealth, NSW and Local Government on significant infrastructure projects. Keith has demonstrated an extraordinary aptitude for legal innovation and recently developed software that has been listed on Microsoft's App Source, called Briefcase365. Keith has been recognised as an Australasian Influential Lawyer and Partner of the Year in industry awards. Keith is a member of the Law Society of NSW business and government law groups and sub-committees.

DAVID TURNER

Host

David Turner has a gift for teasing out people's stories, so it's no wonder he is Hearsay's host. With a double Bachelor of Arts and Laws from Macquarie University, he is also an MBA candidate at UNSW's Australian Graduate School of Management.

When he isn't interviewing people on Hearsay, David is a lawyer at Assured Legal Solutions, a boutique financial services law firm located in Sydney's CBD. Prior to joining Assured, he was called to the NSW Bar, and is a former President of NSW Young Lawyers and a former Councillor of the Law Society of NSW.

David spends the little downtime that he has left reading historical fiction and tinkering on home improvement projects.

You can access David's bio on the Assured Legal Solutions website here.

