

Episode 133: Guest bio

Episode name: Unpacking Cessnock: The High Court's Take on Damages for Wasted Expenditure

Guest(s): David Winterton

DAVID WINTERTON

Lecturer, University of Sydney Law School

David is a Senior Lecturer at the University of Sydney Law School with a particular focus on the law of contract, restitution and commercial remedies. He holds a BSc and LLB from UNSW and a BCL (Dist), MPhil and DPhil from the University of Oxford. His doctoral dissertation, which formed the basis for his book, Money Awards in Contract Law, examined the award of damages for breach of contract, proposing a novel understanding of the area which challenges the law's conventional interpretation. Prior to his arrival, David was a Lecturer at UNSW, a stipendiary lecturer at St Anne's College, Oxford and was in practice in both Sydney (commercial litigation) and New York (Bankruptcy & Restructuring). He is also admitted as a legal practitioner in NSW (2006) and as an Attorney in New York (2012).

DAVID TURNER

Host

David Turner has a gift for teasing out people's stories, so it's no wonder he is Hearsay's host. With a double Bachelor of Arts and Laws from Macquarie University, he is also an MBA candidate at UNSW's Australian Graduate School of Management.

When he isn't interviewing people on Hearsay, David is a lawyer at Assured Legal Solutions, a boutique financial services law firm located in Sydney's CBD. Prior to joining Assured, he was called to the NSW Bar, and is a former President of NSW Young Lawyers and a former Councillor of the Law Society of NSW.

David spends the little downtime that he has left reading historical fiction and tinkering on home improvement projects.
