

Episode 60: Guest bios

Episode name: Imperfect Compliance: Digital Payments and Data Matching in Tax Disputes

Guest(s): Andrew Davidson

ANDREW DAVIDSON Principal, Davidson Tax Law

Andrew is Principal of Davidson Tax Law, a legal practice advising exclusively in the resolution of taxation disputes and superannuation issues. Andrew previously worked in a leading Big 4 Tax Controversy practice and a Controversy boutique and is a member of the Young Lawyers Tax Committee. Prior to practising law, Andrew worked as an equities analyst.

ROSS DAVIS Producer and Host

Ross Davis has an unhealthy obsession with following the latest in legal news and a nose for producing engaging content. He holds a Bachelor of Arts (Psychology, Government, and International Relations) and a Juris Doctor from the University of Sydney.

A reformed litigator, prior to Hearsay he worked in a knowledge role in Mergers and Acquisitions at a top-tier Australian firm and as a legal writer at one of the world's largest legal publishers.

Away from Hearsay, Ross is a tennis tragic and a keen (sometimes barefoot) runner and can often be found hitting the pavement to the sounds of tunes and podcasts in Sydney and its surrounds.
