

Maximising Existing Technology

Step 1:

Conduct a tech review or digital adoption assessment to uncover duplicate tools or unused functionality.

Step 2:

Truly explore existing software. Tech reviews often reveal hidden features and automation capabilities.

Step 3:

Start by testing basic versions of tools already in use before considering additional investment in other new technology.

Step 4:

Prioritise connecting technology adoption to business objectives and client needs.