

Episode 18: Guest bios

Episode name: The Basics of Elder Law

Guest(s): Adeline Schiralli

ADELINE SCHIRALLI

Consulting Principal

Adeline Schiralli is an Accredited Specialist in Wills and Estates Law in New South Wales, with extensive experience developing comprehensive and practical estate plans. Adeline holds her Masters of Law (Applied Law) where she majored in Wills and Estates and is a current lecturer in the Adjunct Teaching Faculty of the College of Law, teaching their Elder Law Subject in the Wills & Estates Masters. Adeline is a committee member of the Elder Law, Capacity and Succession Committee of the NSW Law Society and of the Specialist Accreditation Wills & Estates Advisory Committee. Adeline is passionate about obtaining peace of mind for her clients in relation to their estate planning and elder law needs, advising on the implementation of wills, powers of attorney and enduring guardianships, superannuation death benefit nominations, assisting clients and their loved ones in relation to aged accommodation needs and properly gifting the control of entities to the appropriate person(s) in the event of death and/or incapacity.

DAVID TURNER

Host

David Turner has a gift for teasing out people's stories, so it's no wonder he is Hearsay's host. With a double Bachelor of Arts and Laws from Macquarie University, he is also an MBA candidate at UNSW's Australian Graduate School of Management.

When he isn't interviewing people on Hearsay, David is a lawyer at Assured Legal Solutions, a boutique financial services law firm located in Sydney's CBD. Prior to joining Assured, he was called to the NSW Bar, and is a former President of NSW Young Lawyers and a former Councillor of the Law Society of NSW.

David spends the little downtime that he has left reading historical fiction and tinkering on home improvement projects.
